UNION MEN FIRED IN STEEL MILLS

aburg. Aug. 16.—The discharge out 200 former union men from mion mills of the United States Corporation has brought about statement from the workmen's side that the corporation is getting rid of all men suspected of strong union sympathies. Within the past few days seven of the best workmen in the Pittsburg district have been discharg-ed from the Schoen Steel Wheel Com-pany's plant at McKees Rocks because they openly espoused the cause of the striking carmakers in the same

These discharged were formerly prominent in labor circles when the Amalgamated Association was in power. They assert work has been denied them at other plants of the corporation. At East Liverpool, Ohlo, and at Chester, West Va., Vandegrift. Penn., workmen have been forbidden to attend meetings called in the evening.

CITY BRIEFS

A gerect in a gas pipe almost cost Miss Lizzie Corbin her life Sunday morning. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Corbin, 3 Seeley street. Mrs. Corbin found the room filled with gas and the girl, who is 18 years old, almost overcome. The ambulance was called and Ambulance Surgeon Kiernan administered stimulants. Miss Corbin made a rapid recovery.

Fred Williams, 32 Warren street, required the attention of the Emergency Hospital surgeons, yesterday, by reacon of injuries he received when he ell from he motorcycle at Washington Bridge.

The Board of Trustees of the Bridgeport Protestant Widows' Society feel deeply the loss in death of Mr. Edward Sterling who was for many years a member of the Advisory board of the society. His interest in its work was inherited from his parents, his mother being one of its original members, his father, Mr. George Sterling assistant treasurer until his death. His wise counsels and good judgment were invaluable and will be sadly missed.
His family have their deepest sympathy in their sorrow and the memory of his helpfulness will be cherished with love by all those with whom he was associated in the society.

FAIRFIELD

If Sylvester Poli continues in the side has set in theater building a may soon lay claim to the title if the sing of the vaudeville stage. The announcement that he is to contruct a $50,600 vaudeville house in deldeport is interesting as showing the remarkable progress Mr. Poli is making. The big chain of amusement makes in the theatrical business, which as a matter of fact, means a streat deal to it the theatrical business, which as a parcel of fact means a streat deal to it the theatrical business, which as a natter of fact, means a streat deal to it it to use Mr. Poli has brought upon him left in stageland makes it possible for its thousands of patrons. The importance Mr. Poli has brought upon him left in stageland makes it possible for its dictated to, in the matter of the directity policies of the booking agentials. This power is a great protection of Mr. Poli and makes it possible for a dictated to, in the matter of the directity policies of the booking agentials over his chain of houses, which atte of affairs is of great benefit to house who hole an affection for good audeville performances. Ellen M. and Nelle M. Lewis of News house him Sylvester Poll's humble beginning. It was not so very many years ago that we saw him in his shirt sleeves moulding wax and plaster figures for the small museum venture he launched here. His progress slace those days has been remarkable. We believe that Mr. Poli can accredit his achievements to honest dealing with the public. He slways aimed to give as much as he could for a fair price. He was never given to faking and for that reason he has won the support and favor of the amusement loving public. The growth of Mr. Poli is interesting and shows what energy, perserverance, good judgment and honesty may accomplish.—New Haven Palladium.
